

DARJAH UTAMA BAKTI CEMERLANG
(DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER)

CITATION

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE
TAN SRI DATO' SRI KHALID BIN ABU BAKAR
ROYAL MALAYSIA POLICE

Born on 5 September 1957, Inspector-General of Police, Tan Sri Dato' Sri Khalid Bin Abu Bakar (Tan Sri Khalid) began his service in the Royal Malaysia Police (RMP) in 1976. He rose through the ranks and held various key appointments, before being appointed as Inspector-General of the RMP on 17 May 2013.

2 Under the leadership of Tan Sri Khalid, the relationship between the two Police Forces has grown closer, characterised by good cooperation in the areas of transnational crime, counter terrorism and training exchanges.

3 This close cooperation strongly reflects Tan Sri Khalid's commitment to working closely with Singapore on issues of interest to both countries. Tan Sri Khalid's leadership and efforts have been pivotal to our common fight against terrorism and transnational crime in the region.

4 In recognition of his outstanding contributions in fostering excellent bilateral ties and cooperation between the two Police Forces, and his contributions in enhancing the safety and security of both countries, Inspector-General Tan Sri Khalid is conferred the Darjah Utama Bakti Cemerlang.
